

Christopher Bibzak

The data shows that conversion to fuel cell technology is Not enough to reduce emissions to an acceptable standard. Given that emissions by this project alone would be near all that NM produces annually, you must not approve this permit. This project stands against the very ethos of New Mexico and environmental stewardship and poses a very real threat to the wellbeing of Dona Ana County residents.