

Anonymous Anonymous

Although this data center has its advantages, it also comes with its disadvantages. This center not only harms wildlife but it also harms the environment we live in and its people. NO building or center is worth risking the environment we all cherish and love. No one wants to see a lifeless human construction compared to an enriched environment where life can thrive without being disrupted.