

Anonymous Anonymous

This data centre has a strong potential to do more damage to Doña Ana County, whose air quality already does not meet federal standards and a refusal to consult with them is evidence of government sponsored racism. The public should be given an additional 60 days to review the air quality permit, which they should realistically deny given Bloom Energy's history of dumping hazardous waste.