

anonymous anonymous

Please protect further climate change and temperature rising by protecting your land from devastating problems like AI, data centers, and other things that want to take land and destroy what's already residing there.