

Anonymous Anonymous

Approving the permit would absolutely be environmental racism. We dont need more Data centers. What we need land and plants and trees and animals. The public should be given additional time to review the permit and it should ultimately be denied. The air quality alone would suffer greatly, especialy given Bloom Energy's histiry with illegal waste dumping. A public hearing should be held in Santa Teresa. We, the people, deserve a chance to defend our public and wild land spaces.