

Melissa Horadam

I am writing to express my disapproval for Project Jupiter.

This project helps no one but the ultra rich who can avoid the dangerous and calamitous impacts of data centers on the local environment and very real people who live here.

It seems support for this project has been astroturfed to make it seem like regular people want this to pass. We don't.