

Madison Selb

I believe that project Jupiter is setting to cause more harm to not only Las Cruces, but the planet as a whole. It disrupts ecosystems, social spaces, as well as ruining our air. Adding this to promote technology can be done in different ways that aren't going to harm the world that we live on. Instead of looking for economic boosts, think about the damage that will occur to our future.