

Hepzibah Hoffman-Rogers

This project is completely inappropriate for our arid desert landscape.

Our state has been commodified to the detriment of our citizens, our land and our economy for too long with too little benefit.

This project will result in very little long-term benefit to our community and great amounts of destruction to our precious natural resources