

Mason Monk

Deny their application. We don't want data centers in our state. This provides nothing of value to us and only drains our resources. Protect our land and water from these greedy monsters.