

Zee Cless

I am writing to express my concern and dislike for any data center in new Mexico.

I personally feel there is no need for any data centers due to their lack of care nor concern for the local environment nor culture.

Data centers are taking much Needed resources and using them for reasons that are not needs nor wants for nor from the public.