

Grace Stolp

With all the uncertainty surrounding the effects Project Jupiter will have along with the known negative effects and impact data centers have on communities and the environment I ask that Project Jupiter be stopped. This will never be something worth the sacrifice of the environment and landscape and this will be a project that the community will never want.