

Jordan Tate

It's a shame that we have to fight to stop the progression of this vile and irresponsible project. The permit should be denied. Everyday I cross over an empty Rio Grande as we continue to see the consequences of greedy and irresponsible leadership. The earth tells us that power is in the wrong hands, and this project is a continuation of the foolishness. What a shame.