

Ismael Lopez

To the New Mexico Environmental Improvement Board:

Economic opportunity is one of the strongest foundations of healthy communities. Project Jupiter has the potential to create long-term benefits through new jobs, expanded business activity, and increased investment in Southern New Mexico.

I believe our state should continue welcoming responsible projects that strengthen local economies while meeting New Mexico's environmental standards.

Thank you for your consideration of this important matter.

Ismael Lopez