

Alexis Stickroth

We do not need more data centers, especially one as big as this that's going to harm our earth more than it already has. We do not need the "product" these data centers give. Our water is drying up, our air is getting worse and it's going to continue to get worse rapidly when this building will release such amounts of toxins. Please do not let this keep going!