

Kamarah Thompson

We do not need more AI. Our waters are already polluted, and we're running out of water as we speak. It doesn't make any sense for us to have more AI to take the. Resources that we barely have left. We don't need more data centers. The Earth is already dying. This isn't helping it anymore than it already is at it's current state