

Shaheena Ali

The state and city already have immense water shortages, water that is contaminated is not safely renewable without extensive testing and infrastructure to make it safe to become potable. The air pollution that will also be caused by this project has not been adequately addressed towards mitigation in harm. I do not support this project as a resident in New Mexico.