

Marie Berglund

Project Jupiter will only deplete the water table. There has been no data center where issues with water depletion and water quality haven't arisen. Water is precious anywhere but especially in the desert. Please don't go through with this data center.

How are you going to help the people whose land will be worthless because their property is adjacent to project Jupiter?

The benefits are potentially short lived and no promises of livable wages.