

Kyle Reese

I would like to go outside and be able to breathe without a gas mask in 100 degrees hot summers of New Mexico. I think it would of the best interest to not put up the ai center where a lot of capital is spent for young adults to get education degrees. It will make them seek other colleges and a loss of potential profit for the state.