

bianca guzmab

hello i am a 19 year old woman in college, i oppose to this data center being built due to the fact that it is very harmful to our environment. my future children will not have a chance to see the world the way i was able to see it. data centers use up to 1-5 million tons of water, my future children, animals, and many other people will not be able to have clean water because of this.