

Keri Stockman

The Yucca Growth Infrastructure, LLC-YGI Microgrid Air Quality Construction Permit Application should NOT be approved. New Mexico, especially southern New Mexico, is already experiencing severe drought. This data center will be a net negative for our state.

These data centers consistently under deliver on employment opportunities while negatively impacting nature. They pollute the environment. The only real benefit is making rich people richer. Let them build them in their own yards instead of taking advantage of our state.