

Anonymous Anonymous

I oppose project Jupiter because it's a waste of water resources along with it causing huge amounts of pollution. It's a threat to the ecosystem and will make global warming worse than what it currently is. It's a waste of money to do a project that's just going to pollute the air and water for something that isn't even useful. Worthless data centers like this is going to make it impossible to try and reverse global warming.