

Terah Hinkley

As a resident in New Mexico, a future resident of Dona Ana County and parent of a NMSU student and future students; I am absolutely against project Jupiter. Our state can not afford the environmental impacts that will devastate our fragile ecosystem and the people who live here. There is no going back once it is completed. Protect our present and our future. We do not need AI, we need clean air, water and land.