

Emma Fehr

As an individual with an educational background and career in environmental health and toxicology, I have firsthand knowledge of the harm pollution and degradation of environmental resources has on our most vulnerable communities. Moving forward with this project despite known environmental and human health risks is extremely irresponsible and unjust. I demand that this project ceases before the harm it causes is irreversible.