

Ty Owens

We can not afford to allow more data centers to be built, let alone this massive one that is Project Jupiter. The environmental catastrophe that is this trend of generative AI will fall because the people do not want it. Allowing Project Jupiter to be built will waste resources and it will not result in any true influx of jobs or money into your community.