

Mark Willard

Given the manner in which this project was rushed through the approval process by the developer, I have no confidence whatsoever in any claims made concerning air quality, water use, employment, or any other issue. Please scrutinize this application rigorously and do not approve it until/unless clear guardrails are established that will hold this developer and its tenants fully accountable for future violations that will likely occur.