

Sylvia Dorsey

I do not support this project. The environmental impact of this project would be devastating. It will severely strain our already limited water and energy sources. This project will have no long term benefit to the community or to the state. New Mexico cannot support any more data centers.