

Halla Hughes

Reject these permits! Data center extraction is astronomically harmful, and we as a community deserve to have our water rights protected. The stewardship of our desert ecosystem and the means of human survival are more important than this data center will ever be. We already have limited resources available—don't contribute to the scarcity.