

Joy Stotts

The resources and water, etc. are already stretched thin and the area is already a dry area. On top of that the omissions are going to harm the area and wildlife.