

Alicia Trujillo

This data center is an unnecessary burden our state's environment and the local ecosystems. Our river is already drying up and this project will continue to do enormous amounts of harm. We live in a state full of life and beauty that should be cherished and protected, not destroyed for selfish gain. This project should be shut down permanently.