

Constance Brown

This application should be denied. Our clean air and water are of more urgent concern than accommodating this rapid influx of data centers. We can neither drink nor breathe data. I urge the department to reject this and any further systems that request amending air and water regulations.