

Brian Butcher

Please deny this application. AI data centers pollute air, water, soil, and drain our energy and water resources. The damage wrought by these centers far exceeds any benefit created by them. As someone in a New Mexico area with extreme water limitations, it is unconscionable that the state would allow data centers in the state.