

Wyatt Jones

This is simply not needed. We have lived without generative AI plants for years now. Also think of all the small communities who drink out of the rivers water. Water insecurity is already bad enough around the world, we do not need to make it worse. Please take consideration and stop.