

Laura Shank

I am opposed to this project moving forward. Data centers use an incredible amount of water that we do not have in our state. This project will destroy natural resources that are increasingly at risk due to climate change. As a resident of this state and mother of two children, I am calling on the decision makers to consider the future of this beautiful place and the people who live here.