

Cecilia Wolf

I am completely against the Jupiter Project not only because of its impact on nature and the world around us, but also because of the big impact and difficulties it will bring to families and fellow artists.