

Kaitlyn Felder

We are in a historic drought here in the middle of the state. South is even more hot and dry. This data center is honestly more of a worse decision than me marrying my abusive ex husband. The air quality already sucks, we have little water, and you are destroying native wildlife. No one asked for this. No one asked for AI. No one wants to pay the price for generations because you wanted to make a buck.