

Chloe Banegas

This will pollute our air it will take our drinking water because where in the world are they gonna get water in a desert that barely has water for all of us there is zero point for a data center to be built in New Mexico it will harm our people it will harm our land it has zero need being here in anyway please do not allow this data center to continue to be built as has zero use here in New Mexico.