

Michelle Miller

I adamantly oppose this permit. This project will increase pollution, drain the water table, and provide minimal job growth for the local community. A desert habitat is not the place to build this kind of water hog.

Just review the experiences of other communities with data centers.