

Lindsay Herron

As a New Mexico resident, I'm strongly opposed to this data center. It will undoubtedly have profoundly detrimental effects on the state, particularly in terms of its energy consumption; water use; e-waste; and air, light, and noise pollution. Please don't be swayed by greed. We don't have limitless resources; please help us protect them for the good of society and for future generations.