

Lorenza Ledesma

The public comments are after the fact and there is a concern the our border town and states of water use and our droughts. Our farmers need the water use. Will this recycle water harm the agriculture in our community. And there are concerns about population growth.

I urge the New Mexico Environment Department to look into this important project.

Sincerely,
Lorenza Lorenza