

Kaitlin Wolff

Data centers are horrible for the environment and should not be in New Mexico, or anywhere else. They consume too much water and energy, pollute the land and air, and poison humans and animals. Say no to project Jupiter!