

Danny Wolf

I deeply oppose this permit and the whole project. It is threat to all residents of New Mexico and our precious. The fuel cells will release 10 millions of tons of carbon dioxide per year and pull on water we don't have. The rio grande has run dry earlier than it ever has. We need clean air and abundant water, not one of the biggest data centers in the world.