

Richard Warren

This project will have significant detrimental effects on air quality/safety, water consumption and little long-term benefit to the citizens of New Mexico.

There is only financial benefit to out of state developers/investors.

The long-term ecological, air, water damage/threat is not worth the short-term financial gain during the construction phase.

I strongly oppose this or a derivative of this project. Put it in Texas.