

Richard Locke

Deny any and all Project Jupiter permit applications. The developers do not care about NM or its residents, only their own personal profits. They are misleading the public and so far the government has allowed it. Stop this now. We do not need more AI data centers. Especially ones in the middle of the desert that will use a million gallons of water just to get going and experimental technology that will regularly create an unknown amount of hazardous waste. Deny them. Please.