

Anonymous Anonymous

New Mexico is a state that prides itself on listening to its people. Why stop now? It is not a party decision, it's a people decision. We have already seen evidence that data centers disrupt the environment around it. Instead find different ways to create jobs; start funding programs to help with homelessness and care for those that need it.