

jane klingbeil

I oppose this due to the massive negative environmental impact. I do not believe they should be building a data center that requires so much water in a desert trying to preserve water that is already subject to droughts. We have seen examples of the light air and water pollution caused by these data centers and other states. we should not let this happen we dont need AI we need water!!