

Stephanie Deutsch

Allowing Project Jupiter to be built is incredibly short sighted and forgets about the community. The community of Doña Ana county will be harmed with the immediate aftermath of bad water, electricity shortages and the long term environmental damages. The environmental damages will outlive the data center. What happens to that mass of a built environment once the tech world has moved on to something else? Leaving New Mexicans to suffer in the waste of Project Jupiter. Please do not allow this to happen