

Diane Laughlin

Stop Project Jupiter. Not only is it irresponsible, but it's reckless. To build a data center in a desert is insane. Almost all of southern New Mexico has been ravaged by oil and gas and military operations, so this would complete the destruction of the southern region of our state. This is not sustainable.

I recently purchased property in Doña Anna County, And I don't want this in my backyard.