

Jeanette Medina

My family and friends do not approve of the AI data center. It will be using our fresh water that the people need. We barely have any water and this will only make matters worse. We don't need this for our community.