

Amelia Gatterman

I've grown up in New Mexico and love it more than anything. The creation of this data center will destroy our environment and the natural beauty we know and love. Our state needs more environmental recourses and if we really want to create new jobs, we'd create better opportunities for New Mexico children after high school.