

gregory Sandoval

Project Jupiter's microgrids will result in destructive environmental and climate impacts, worsen ozone pollution and violate community health standards in a region where the people will suffer health impacts directly related to the emissions from this facility.